NOTES FROM RUGGLES

J. H. R. Writes Interesting Letter of Happening at Picturesque and Famous Old Campgrounds.

Ruggles Campgrounds, July 31—At the close of one of the hottest and most sultry days we have ever felt here, the clouds loomed up, it lightning and thundering with every indication of a big rain, but just as it has done for days, it all passed away with a few breezes. It is a little cooler, but no rain yet.

There has been the awfulest scurrying around tonight you ever saw trying to find sleeping quarters for all the preachers. There are just twenty-two on the grounds tonight. There will sure be a famine in chickens in this community after this campmeeting is over. We are trying to take care of part of the overflow from the preacher's tent in our Kentucky building. They have put the biggest preacher—Rev. A. P. Smith—and the smallest—Rev. H. D. Cooper—in a room almost directly below newspaper headquarters, with a few more to keep them company. They are warranted not to snore. We can say more about that in the morning. But they looked like they might be noisy.

The following new preachers are the arrivals for the day: Rev. A. P. Smith of West Union, Ohio, Thomas Grenfell of Catlettsburg, E. P. Hall of Latonia, L. O. Carder, O. J. Carder of Paintsville, J. D. Haggard of Greenup, John Ruggles of Germantown and E. T. Kelley of Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Bradford and daughter of Houston, Texas, are visiting the campmeeting. They are guests at the Simons cottage.

Clark Busby of Maysville was mixing with the campers today.

Mrs. James Pollitt of Batavia, Ohio, is spending a few days in camp. The services for the day have been in charge of the following: Rev. T. L. Stalter the early prayer meeting; Rev. Isiah Cline the preacher for the morning service. At 3 p. m. Dr. Jolly gave us again one of his most interesting addresses. His subject was "The three-fold development of the man."

The evening service was again in charge of Dr. Franklin who preached a powerful sermon on "The Judgment." The impression for good was evident. The souls were converted at the close of the sermon. The meetings are now well under way, and with the large number of ministers and workers present there should be a mighty revival before the meeting closes.

VIOLENT BATTLES

Being Fought on Russian Front—All France is Quiet Except Near Verdun—Austrians and Armies of the Czar Clash.

London, August 1—Violent battles are still being fought by the Russians and the Austrians virtually in the entire front, from the Pripiet River marshes in Russia southward to the region of Buczaez, in Galicia, a distance of about 200 miles. In the meanwhile, comparative calm prevails on the front in France, except near Verdun.

The situation in the Somme region has undergone virtually no change since the concerted drive by the British and French last Sunday and the recapture from the British Monday of the narrow front they had taken west of Bordeaux Wood.

Germans Counter-Attack
The Russians who have reached the western bank of the Stokhod River, near Stolyva and Smolary have been forced to sustain a heavy counter-attack by German infantry, which, Petrograd says was repulsed with heavy casualties.

Berlin asserts that in this fighting the Russians are exhausting themselves in futile attacks and that they have been thrown back three times near Smolary. Northeast of the Kovel-Rovno railway Berlin claims another defeat for the Russians near Porsk, while Vienna says that west and northwest of Lutsk the Russian attacks have ceased, obviously owing to the heavy losses sustained.

Russians Advance in Galicia
In Galicia, according to Petrograd, the Russians have crossed the Koropetz River, near Tchekuvudenska. In the Caucasus region the Russians have advanced further from Erzincan toward Sivas and also made progress in the direction of Mosul.

The Turks, according to Constantinople, have recaptured Antuck, and repulsed with heavy casualties Russian attacks near Bascken. On the Egyptian front, Constantinople says the Turks are gaining ground westward.

In the Austro-Italian theater Austrian attacks on the Italians on Monte Cimone, on the Setti-Comuni plateau and in the Toman sector, were repulsed, according to Rome.

Mr. John Berlin of East Second street was a business visitor in Cincinnati yesterday.

BALLOTS SENT IN CALL

For Strike — 100,000 Are Received From Men on 225 Lines in Four Brotherhoods—Almost Unanimous—Complete Vote May Not Be Counted Before Next Saturday.

New York, August 1—Ballots of one-fourth of the 400,000 members of four railroad brotherhoods, who are voting on the question of calling a general strike on 225 railroads, already have been canvassed, and they were virtually unanimously in favor of a strike, it was learned tonight.

The ballots uncanceled here today were received from the eastern and southeastern territory, and it is expected a count in these districts will be completed tomorrow. Chairmen of the general adjustment committees representing workers on railroads river will reach here, it was said, not later than next Saturday. Many of them are expected Thursday.

May Take Five Days

Timothy Shea, assistant president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, who is in charge of the staff of fifty men counting the ballots, said tonight it will take fully five days to count the votes from all territories. About 650 chairmen will report here, he said.

When the complete vote has been counted, probably on Saturday or Monday, Shea said, there will be a meeting here of the National Conference Committee of Railways and the result will be submitted by the brotherhood officials.

Negotiations will then be conducted in the hope that a satisfactory settlement may be reached. A strike would be called only if the negotiations failed.

"The railway employees are not asking an increase in pay, but only an eight hour work day for the same wages for which they are giving ten hours' service," Shea said.

NEGRO HELD TO GRAND JURY

George Fearis, colored, who was brought to this city Monday charged with robbing the cash register of the Galtier Store at Marshall Station was tried before Judge Rice yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and held over to the September term of the grand jury. His bail was placed at $200.

FORDS TAKE A DROP

The price of Ford automobiles took another drop Saturday. The price on touring cars dropped $80, the price now being $373 including freight. The price on roadsters dropped $45, the price now being $358 including freight. The cars sold at this price will be delivered after August 1st.

PUBLIC SALE OF MASON COUNTY FARM

As Executor of Phoebe Marshall, deceased, I will, on SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1916, at 2 p. m., on the premises sell at public auction, the farm owned by her on which she resided at her death, containing about 175 acres, lying just north of the town of Washington, and within 200 yards of Maysville and Lexington Turnpike road, which runs through said town, and within half a mile of the new Washington High School building. Said farm is located in the best part of Mason County, and is in a fine state of cultivation. It is well watered, has on it one and one-half story brick dwelling house, containing six rooms and kitchen, one tenant house, stable, carriage house, silo, and two large tobacco barns, one of which is also a stock barn. It adjoins lands of George Longnecker, Larkin Brothers, A. L. Glascock, Clarence Tucker, Mrs. Mattie McCann and Mrs. Pearl Marshall. Full possession of the farm will be given to the purchaser on March 1, 1917, but possession of the dwelling house, with privilege of seeding during the coming fall, will be given at once on completion of the sale.

The farm will be sold on a credit of six and twelve months, the purchaser to execute notes with good personal security, bearing six per cent. interest from the day of sale, each for one-half the purchase money, with privilege, however, of paying the whole purchase price in cash at any time before same falls due, with interest up to the date of payment.

This sale is made pursuant to the directions contained in the will of Phoebe Marshall, deceased.

E. L. WORTHINGTON,
Executor of Phoebe Marshall, Deceased.
